

Please do not limit citizens' internet provider choices. It worries me that so many people are hearing the same things on radio, seeing the same things on TV, and connecting to the World Wide Web via the same servers. Diversity is necessary for social health! Thank you for preserving my right to choose other than Qwest.